MINISTRY OF FINANCE(Department of Revenue)New Delhi, the 29th February 1964*

G.S.R. 265.—Under the proviso to article 309 of the constitution of India, the President is pleased to make the following Rules to regulate the method of direct recruitment of Inspectors in the Income-tax Department:—

RULESPART I—General

1. These rules relate to the examination to be held by the Directorate of Inspection (Incometax) in 1964 for the selection of candidates for appointment to the post of Inspector of Incometax in the Incometax Department.

2. For the purpose of these rules—

(a) "Directorate" means Director of Inspection (Income-tax).

(b) "Commissioner" means Commissioner of Income-tax.

- (c) "Inspector" means Inspector of Incometax.
- (d) "Scheduled Castes" means any caste, community, race, sect, etc., notified as such by the President of India.
- (e) "Scheduled Tribes" means any caste, community, race, sect, etc., notified as such by the President of India.

PART II—Persons Eligible to Apply

3. A candidate must be:—

- (a) a citizen of India; or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim; or
- (c) a subject of Nepal; or
- (d) a subject of Bhutan; or
- (e) a Tibetan Refugee who came over to India before 1st January 1962 with the intention of permanently settling in India; or
- (f) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India.

Provided that, a candidate belonging to categories (c), (d) & (e) shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been given by the Government of India and if he belongs to category (f) the certificate of eligibility will be issued for a period of one year after which such a candidate will be retained in service subject to his having acquired Indian citizenship.

A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to the examination and may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being granted in his favour by the Government.

4. (a) No male candidate who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment on the result of this competitive examination unless the Government of India after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so exempt him from the operation of this rule.

(b) No female candidate whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage shall be eligible for appointment on the result of this competitive examination unless the Government of India after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so exempt her from the operation of this rule.

5. The decision of the Commissioner as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final.

PART III—Educational Qualifications

6. The minimum academic qualification is a Degree of a recognised University.

PART IV—Age

7. The candidate must have attained the age of 19 and must not have attained the age of 23 on the 1st April 1964 i.e. he must have been born not earlier than the 2nd April 1941 and not later than the 1st April 1945.

NOTE:—The Upper age limit prescribed above will be relaxable:—

- (i) Up-to a maximum of five years if the candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe.
- (ii) Up-to a maximum of five years if the candidate is a resident of the former French or Portuguese Settlements which have now become part of India and has been receiving his education through the medium of French/Portuguese.
- (iii) Up-to maximum of four years if the candidate is a resident of the Andaman or Nicobar Islands.

(iv) Up-to the age of 30 years on the 1st April 1964 in the case of Departmental candidates who entered the Income-tax Department before the 7th March 1962, and

Up-to the age of 28 years on the 1st April 1964 in the case of Departmental Candidates who entered the Income-tax Department on or after the 7th March 1962, but not later than the 1st April 1962.

These concessions will be admissible also to the following categories of candidates:—

(a) Persons who have come on deputation to the office of the Central Board of Direct Taxes from the Incometax Department and are holding 'excluded' posts;

(b) the staff working in the Directorates of Inspection (Incometax)/(Investigation)/(Research, Statistics and Publication);

A candidate belonging to category (a) above can avail of the concession only in his parent Incometax charge.

N.B.:—Candidates who are admitted in the examination under age concession admissible to departmental candidates, will not be eligible for appointment if after submitting applications, they resign from service either before or after taking the examination.

PART V—Standard and Syllabus of the Examination

8. The subjects of the examination, the time allowed and the maximum marks for each subject will be as follows:—

A.	Subject	Time allowed	Maximum Marks.
	1. General English.	3 hours.	150 marks.
	2. General Knowledge	2 hours.	150 marks.
	3. Arithmetic.	2 hours.	100 marks.
B.	Interview.	—	100 marks.

9. The syllabus of the examination will be as follows:—

General English.—Candidates will be required to write an Essay in English on one of the several specified subjects, to write a précis and to draft letters, memorandum, etc., making use of given matters.

General Knowledge.—Knowledge of current events and such matters of every day observation and experience in their scientific aspects as may be expected of an educated person who has not made a special study of any scientific subject. The paper will also include questions on History of India and Geography of a nature which a candidate should be able to answer without special study.

Arithmetic.—Questions of matriculation standard.

10. All question papers will be answered in English.

11. Candidates shall write the papers in their own hand. In no circumstances will they be allowed the help of an amanuensis (scribe) to write down answers for them.

12. Only candidates who secure the percentage of marks prescribed by the Directorate will be called for the interview.

PART VI—Fee

13. Candidates must pay the following fees:—

Application and examination fee of Rs. 7.50 nP. (Rupees 1.87 nP. in the case of candidates belonging to a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe) of which Re. 1.00 should be paid by Crossed Indian Postal Order when asking for application form and connected documents, and the balance in the form of CROSSED Indian Postal Order payable to the Commissioner concerned at his Headquarters. Fees once paid will not be refundable on any account.

PART VII—Admission to the Examination

14. Candidates will have to choose one of the Charges of the Commissioners to which they wish to be nominated and they can compete for the vacancies arising in that Charge only. They will also have to choose a centre within the Charge of the Commissioner to which they wish to be nominated. No candidate will be admitted to the examination unless he holds a certificate of admission from the Commissioner, whose decision in the matter will be final.

15. A candidate found guilty of impersonation, or of submitting fabricated documents or documents which have been tampered with, or of making statements which are incorrect or false or suppressing material information, or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination may in addition to rendering himself liable to a criminal prosecution, be debarred, either permanently or for a specified period, from employment under the Central Government.

16. No documents except those required in the application form will be taken into consideration. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means shall disqualify him for admission.

NOTE:—Applications from persons already in Government service and/or Public Undertakings etc. will be entertained only if they are routed through their present employers. Advance copies of such applications can be sent direct to the Commissioner concerned for his information so as to reach him positively before the prescribed date for the receipt of applications, but unless the original application is received by the Commissioner through the proper channel well in advance of the date of commencement of the examination, the candidates will not be permitted to take the examination. The decision of the Commissioner in such cases will be final and the applications received very late will be rejected without entering into further correspondence with the candidates.

PART VIII—Travelling Allowance

17. No Travelling allowance would be admissible either for appearing in the examination or for the interview.

PART IX—Appointment of Successful Candidates

18. The Commissioner shall prepare a list of a suitable number of successful candidates of his charge in the order of their merit and in that order candidates up to the number of reserved and unreserved vacancies in that Commissioner's Charge will be offered appointment as Inspector in his Charge.

19. The candidates will in the first instance be appointed temporarily and will be on probation for a period of two years. During that period they will receive a fixed pay of Rs. 210 plus the usual allowances and will be required to pass a departmental examination. Inspectors of Income-tax who qualify in the Departmental Examination prescribed for them in full within one year of appointment, however, may be allowed to draw their first increment only on completion of one year's service in the grade of Inspector. An Inspector who does not qualify in the Departmental Examination in full within one year will be allowed the first increment only when he qualifies in the Examination in full. Passing in the Departmental Examination will be an essential condition for successful completion of the probation and those who fail to qualify in the Departmental Examination will be liable to be discharged without assigning any reasons.

NOTE:—Success in the Examination confers no right to appointment unless Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment.

PATR X—Documents to be sent along with application form

20. Crossed Indian Postal Orders.—All postal Orders should bear the signature of the issuing Post Master and a clear stamp of the Issuing Post Office. All Postal Orders should be CROSSED and made payable to the Commissioner concerned at the Post Office located at his headquarters. In no case will Postal Orders payable at any other Post Office be accepted. Defaced or mutilated Postal Orders will also not be accepted.

21. A Certificate of Age.—A copy duly attested by a Gazetted Officer who should give his name and designation in full, of the Matriculation Certificate or the Secondary School Leaving Certificate or a certificate recognised by an Indian University as equivalent to Matriculation or an extract from a Register of Matriculates maintained by a University, duly certified by the proper authority of the University, in support of age.
